Art Unit: 1625

Claims 1-7 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The method of making the instant compounds is not described Applicant's arguments filed 4-13-2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants have argued that the compounds are closely related to warfarin and therefore one of ordinary skill would know how to synthesize them. They do not point out the differences and do not recite how one would make them.

Note that in warfarin a phenyl moiety is bonded to the side chain. In the first class of applicants' compounds no phenyl group bonded to the side chain and in the second class a nuclearly substituted benzyl group is bonded thereto. Thus the compounds are quite different in structure from warfarin and one would not expect that the method used to make warfarin could be used to make the instant compounds.

Applicants Declaration under Rule 132 of 4-25-2005 does not indicate how of ordinary skill in the art would make the instant compounds.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
